NOTICE OF VACANCY: PROBATION OFFICER IV – ERC / FULL-TIME

Notice Issued March 29, 2019
Posting Period March 29, 2019 – April 12, 2019
Department Probation Services

DISTINGUISHING JOB CHARACTERISTICS

This position is a senior level Probation Officer who provides intensive services to youth on Probation who have been assigned to the Montgomery County Juvenile Evening Reporting Center (ERC). The ERC is an innovative program following the JDAI model, designed to serve youth who are court involved to reduce recidivism. This program uses Motivational Interviewing, and Cognitive Behavioral Therapy to instill the skills and dispositions necessary for them to embrace more pro-social behaviors. The evidence-based efforts of the ERC are concentrated in a highly structured setting during evening hours. The Juvenile Probation Officer IV provides training to Probation Officers and interns. Other duties include random monitoring, wrap-around services, individual and group counseling, and day/evening reporting services.

“In this position, you are an At-Will Employee serving at the pleasure of the Administrative Judge.”
