In collaboration with the Juvenile Court, Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services Board for Montgomery County (ADAMHS), the Ohio Department of Youth Services (ODYS), and several treatment providers, the program reduces substance abuse and recidivism by providing judicially supervised treatment, strength-based case management, drug testing, community supervision and use of incentives/sanctions.

The judicial officer hearing the case through adjudication and disposition would then issue a court order referring the case to the Juvenile Treatment Court. 34.03 Family Treatment Court Docket

- (A) The Montgomery County Family Treatment Court (FTC) began serving its target population of child welfare-involved parents with substance use disorders in 2016.

The current program serves residents of Montgomery County that are parents or caregivers of children and who are alleged or who have been determined by the Montgomery County Juvenile Court (MCJC) in official (adjudicated) status to be responsible in a dependency, abuse or neglect referral involving a child or children of whom they are the parent or caregiver. FTC has the ability to serve seventy-five (75) families annually.

In current collaboration with the Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services Board of Montgomery County (ADAMHS), Samaritan Behavioral Health/Crisis Care, Help Me Grow Brighter Futures, the Public Health Department of Dayton/Montgomery County (PHDM), Children Matter Montgomery County (CMMC), Samaritan Behavioral Health's Young Children's Assessment & Treatment Services (YCATS) and Case Western Reserve University (CWRU), the primary goal of the FTC is to promote the health, safety and welfare of children in the child welfare system dependency actions by actively intervening to address the drug, alcohol and other service needs of families through integrated, culturally competent and judicially managed collaboration that facilitates timely reunification or an alternative permanency plan. Achieving this goal should increase the number of family reunifications; ensure children have safe and permanent homes, enable parents or caregivers to have the ability to better care for themselves and their children and how to seek resources to do so, while reducing the cost to society. Similar outcomes are expected to be achieved regardless of the race and ethnicity of the participants.

(B) Placement on the Family Treatment Court Docket

While participation in Family Treatment Court begins post-adjudication, identification of the parents or caregivers for possible participation on the docket may be employed at any stage of the child welfare proceedings. Referrals may come from a variety of sources including a Judge or Magistrate, child welfare workers, prosecutors, defense counsel, and treatment providers. All referrals will be sent to the program supervisor. The Family Treatment Court team makes a recommendation to accept or deny the client entrance into the program, but the ultimate decision is left to the discretion of the assigned judicial officer.

In order to be admitted to the program, the parent or caregiver must be a resident of Montgomery County. A MCJC Judge or Magistrate, an attorney or Montgomery County Department of Jobs and Family Services-Children Services Division (CSD) staff identifies Montgomery County resident families that may benefit from the intensive case management and treatment the court provides and makes a referral to the FTC Coordinator.

The FTC coordinator schedules and completes the screening process which includes an explanation of the program and participant expectations, identification of family needs, the completion of all necessary paperwork and the Texas Christian University Drug Screen (TCUDS II), the collection of a urine sample from the parent(s) or caregiver(s), and a dual diagnosis assessment. The FTC coordinator will review the assessment and all other pertinent information, and make a decision to accept or deny the case.

Any information specifically provided by an expert should be distinguished as such.

Parents are encouraged to agree on a fair written parenting time schedule that fits their circumstances and their children's lives, with the following serving as a schedule when the parents cannot agree. The parents may change this schedule by agreement. In the event of conflicting dates and times, the following is the order of priority: Children's Birthdays; Mother's/Father's Day; Holidays; Summer/Breaks; Weekends; then Weekdays. If the parents have more than one child, the parenting time will be exercised with all children together. Each parent has a duty to facilitate and encourage the other parent's parenting time with the children.

1. WEEKENDS: The non-residential parent shall have parenting time on alternate weekends from Friday at 6:00 p.m. to Sunday at 6:00 p.m. (Exception – not applicable during summer vacation)

2. WEEKDAY: The non-residential parent shall have parenting time from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. each Wednesday evening or another weekday evening by agreement. (Exception – not applicable during summer vacation)

3. HOLIDAYS: The father shall have the children on the holidays in Column 1 in odd-numbered years and the holidays in Column 2 in the even-numbered years. The mother shall have the children on the holidays in Column 1 in even-numbered years and the holidays in Column 2 in odd-numbered years:

COLUMN 1

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day
Easter Sunday
Fourth of July
Beggar's Night (6:00 to 9:00 p.m.)

COLUMN 2

Presidents Day
Memorial Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day

Parenting time shall be from 9:00 a.m. the day of the holiday until 9:00 p.m., except for Beggar's Night as observed in that parent's community. When the holiday falls on a Monday immediately following a non-residential parenting time weekend, the non-residential parent shall be entitled to keep the children continuously from 6:00 p.m. Friday to 6:00 p.m. Monday.

4. MOTHER'S/FATHER'S DAY: On Mother's Day and Father's Day, no matter the parenting time schedule, the children shall be with the appropriate parent on those days from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

5. CHRISTMAS BREAK: In all even-numbered years, the mother shall have the children from 9:00 a.m. the day after school recesses (or 9:00 a.m. on December 20 if the children are not in school), until 9:00 p.m. December 24 and the father shall have the children from 9:00 p.m. December 24 through 6:00 p.m. January 1. In all odd-numbered years the reverse shall apply.

6. BIRTHDAYS: In odd-numbered years, the father shall have all the children on each child's birthday from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m. In even-numbered years, mother shall have all the children on each child's birthday from 6:00 p.m. until 9:00 p.m.

The mother shall have the children for spring break in the even-numbered years. If all the children are not of school age, the Saturday before Easter through the Friday after Easter shall be substituted.

8. SUMMER VACATION: The parties shall exercise summer parenting time in alternating one week increments beginning the first Friday after the last day of school. Each period shall begin on Friday at 6:00 p.m. until the following Friday at 6:00 p.m. The alternate parenting week schedule shall continue until the children are scheduled to return to school. In the odd numbered years, the father shall start the first week. In the even numbered years, the mother shall start the first week.

If either party is employed by an employer that has an annual mandatory shut-down, that party shall have priority for parenting time during that period. If both parents have an identical shut-down period, the non-residential parent shall have priority. If the mandatory shut-down period creates a conflict with the alternating week schedule, the parties shall trade an equal amount of time as make-up for the lost shut-down parenting time.

Mid weekday and alternating weekend parenting time shall be suspended during summer vacation parenting time. Child support will not be reduced during summer parenting time.

Each parent shall provide the other parent with destination, time of departure and arrival, phone number for emergency purposes, and mode of travel and flight numbers.

The non-residential parent's first alternating weekend shall begin the following weekend.

The children and the residential parent have no duty to wait for the non-residential parent to arrive for parenting time more than thirty (30) minutes, unless notified. The non-residential parent who arrives more than thirty minutes late without prior notification for a particular parenting time forfeits that parenting time, unless the residential parent agrees otherwise.

10. DROP-OFF: The non-residential parent will not return the children early from parenting time unless the parents agree to a different drop-off time in advance. The residential parent or other adult well-known to the children must be present when the children are returned from parenting time.

11. CANCELING NON-RESIDENTIAL PARENTING TIME: Except in emergency situations, the non-residential parent must give at least 24 hours advance notice when canceling any parenting time.

If the children become ill or injured during their time with the non-residential parent, said parent, shall contact the residential parent to secure treatment unless the situation is a medical emergency.

14. TELEPHONE/MAIL OR ELECTRONIC: Neither parent shall interfere with written, voice, or electronic communications between the children and the other parent. Long-distance calls from an out of town parent shall be at that parent's expense. Non-emergency phone calls should be limited to one per day before 8:00 p.m. EST.

15. TRANSPORTATION: The non-residential parent has responsibility for transportation of the children to and from their home for parenting time with them and may use another adult well-known to the children for picking up or dropping off the children when necessary. Car seats should be exchanged when required.

16. SCHOOL WORK: Parents shall provide time for children to study and complete homework assignments, even if the completion of work interferes with the parent's plans for the children. The residential parent is responsible for providing the non-residential parent all of the school assignments and books. Summer school which is necessary for a child must be attended; regardless of which parent has the child during the summer school period.

17. EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: Regardless of where the children are living, their continued participation in extracurricular activities, school related or otherwise, should not be interrupted. It shall be the responsibility of the parent with whom the children are residing at the time to discuss the scheduling of such activities with the children and to provide transportation to the activities. Each parent shall provide the other parent with notice of all extracurricular activities, complete with schedules and the name, address and telephone number of the activity leader, if available.

18. RELOCATION: If the custodial parent, non-parent legal custodian, or non-residential parent who has an existing child support order and/or parenting time order intends to relocate, the relocating party must file a “Notice of Intent to Relocate” contained in Appendix G of the MCJC Local Rules with the Clerk’s Office and serve a copy to the other parties and the Child Support Enforcement Agency.

If the relocating party is relocating within Montgomery County, Ohio, the “Notice of Intent to Relocate” shall be filed and served upon all parties with custodial/parental/visitation rights and the CSEA not less than thirty (30) days prior to relocation.

If the relocating party is relocating outside of Montgomery County, Ohio, then the “Notice of the Intent to Relocate” shall be filed and served upon all other parties with custodial/parental/visitation rights and the CSEA no less than sixty (60) days prior to relocation.

Any party seeking a modification of custody, visitation, child support or parental rights and responsibilities due to relocation shall file a motion with the Court and request a hearing.

19. ACCESS TO RECORDS: The non-residential parent shall have access to the same records, same school activities and to any day-care center which the children attend on the same basis that said records or access is legally permitted to the residential parent, unless a restrictive order has been obtained from the Court. It is the responsibility of the parent obtaining a restrictive order to serve it on the appropriate organization.

20. NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Both parents shall give written notice to the other parent immediately upon any change of address and/or phone number, unless a restrictive order has been obtained from the Court. A copy of the notice, including the parties' name and case number, shall also be provided to the Juvenile Court, 380 W. 2nd St., Dayton, Ohio 45422, Attention: Chief Deputy Clerk.
